Children's Seamless Ribbed Waists, sizes from 1 to 12 years, 9c. each. This rumor cannot, at this writing, be officially corroborated, but it has generally spread through camp, and it is generally thought to be plausible, at general headquarters. Lieutenant A. W. (Tony) Miller, of Company B, Second Virginia, is known about camp as a man of functions. In addition to the Second Regimental Commissary Department, which he has efficiently superintended for the past two months, he has now charge of the regimental bakery, and is making himself responsible for the entertainment of the camp. What Polk Miller is to the audiences that he entertains, Uncle Tony is to Camp Cuba Libre. He has charge of the most popular quartette in camp, composed of Sergeants Edwin Cooke, L. L. Matthews, J. L. Luxford, and Corporal C. J. Taliaferro, all of the Walker Light Guard, Company B, Second Virginia Regi-ment. This quartette gave a delightment. is proving quite a success.

General Lee is reported as being very indignant about the reports that have been published in several northern papers to the health and management our camp. There is not a camp in the volunteer army with better sanitary conditions and a smaller mortality, and our discipline is almost perfect.

Orders have been issued making the drill hours from 6 to 8 A. M. and from 4 to 6 P. M. We are drilling almost exclusively in extended order and battle formation, with very good results.

The paymaster is expected to reach camp to-morrow. He is always greeted by an ovation, but will be doubly welcomed upon this occasion, because we hope to receive back pay from the date of volunteering to the day of arriving at the place of rendezvous. INTERVIEW WITH BRYAN. Your correspondent paid a visit this morning to Panama Park, where, among other troops, are quartered the First Nebraska Regiment, commanded by Colonel William Jennings Bryan. I had quite a pleasant interview with the dis-I haa tinguished colonel, which was limited to military and camp matters. The Colonel is very much pleased with his He prefers Panama Park to any other location. I suggested that closer proximity to the city might prove convenient. He said he did not consider desirable; he was not in camp for social enjoyment, but strictly for ness, and considered his position as best adapted to the instruction of his men. He had some pleasant things to say about the Virginia officers he had met. The Rough Riders are also quartered at Panama. They are a fine looking body of men and ride well. SECOND MISSISSIPPI. The Second Mississippi, Colonel Montgemery commanding, are also encamped here. Panama affords splendid drill-grounds, and a host of shade-trees. It has a beautiful park, through which flows a picturesque creek, connecting with the St. Johns river. From the trees there hangs large quantities of hanging moss, and this, together with the beautiful shrubbery, makes it an ideal place for encampment. The rifle range of the Seventh Army Corps is at Panama. Many of the regiments are leaving Springfield. It is the intention of those in authority to scatter the regiments composing the corps around in the various suburbs for the summer, thinking that by this means the health of the men can be better preserved.

Colonel Taylor, of the Fourth Virginia, is indisposed to-day, and Lieutenant-Colonel Edwards is in command of the regiment. Leave of absence for fifteen days has been granted to Lieutenant A. M. Lawof the Fourth Virginia Regiment. The following correction appears this morning in the Florida Times-Union and "The statement in yesterday's issue that Private W. H. Daffron, of Company B. Second Virginia, is a 'night owl' was not intended to mean that he stays out beyond the time allowed by camp regulations, as Mr. Daffron stands strictly to business, and is a hard and con-scientious worker. He is now detailed at brigade headquarters, where he is ren-dering very efficient service."

Major-General M. C. Butler, in command of this division, was an interested onlooker at regimental parade yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by Asdstant-Adjutant-General Strong, and both officers spoke in complimentary terms of the soldierly appearance of the men. While there are few cases of serious sickness in the Third, a startling number of men called at the hospital yesterday for medicine and treatment. Dr. Anderson, first assistant surgeon, kept an account yesterday, and told me this morning that the total number amounted to 245. Perhaps not forty of the above were unable to do duty, but just complained of feeling badly. The recent and present hot weather is thought to have a good deal to do with bringing about the above state of affairs. Both Major Smith and Captain Anderson were kept busy at their posts all day prescribing for the

RACE RIOTING IN NEW YORK. Court-Room Turned Into Hospital-

Twenty-Eight Arrests. NEW YORK, August 3 .- A race riot between white and colored men and women in a section of the West Side known as "Hell's Kitchen," last night, resulted in twenty-eight arrests being made, and a change in the appearance of the West-Side court-room this morning from that of a court to that of a hospital. Men and women appeared with their heads bandaged, both as spectators and as prisoners. The court-room was crowded, prisoners. The court-room was crowded, as were the corridors, and the street in front of the building held a large, anxious crowd of both white and colored persons. There was little evidence presented, however, and all except one man, who was fined $5, were discharged.

Campaign of Education-They Do Not Like It.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 3 .- (Special.)-Professor C. H. Mebone, the Superin tendent of Public Instruction, has just returned from the Southwestern section of the State, where he has been conducting a campaign of education. Professor Mebone states that he will call the State Board of Examiners to meet here Friday, August 12th. There is a large accumulation of examination papers for the board to examine. They are from ap-plicants for the life certificate.

An Atlanta paper states that the two North Carolina companies at Fort Me-Pherson are not on good terms with the regulars stationed there. This is to be expected. The North Carolina boys are thrown with the negro regulars there, and in many instances put on an equality with them. A number of the boys have written here expressing their disgust at the existing conditions there.
